

2017 Committee Involvement Opportunities

One of the most important aspects of association work is committee involvement. Listed below are RRHBA's committees along with a brief description. Please indicate the committee(s) you would like to serve on, or would like additional information for, and we will forward your interest to the related committee chairperson. If you have any questions, feel free to contact Rena DeBerry at rdeberry@rrhba.com or 540-389-7135.

_____ Associate Advisory Council (AAC) ~ Chairperson: Jimmy Butler: 2017 Elected positions. The AAC is responsible for planning and implementing social, civic, fund-raising, and other special events for the Association. The council is made up of Associate members who work to provide programs and activities to encourage Builders and Associate member relationships.

_____ Governmental Affairs ~ Chairperson: Matt Prescott: The Governmental Affairs committee works closely with area localities, as well as other governmental regulatory agencies on matters of interest to the home building industry.

_____ Marketing & Technology Committee ~ Chairperson: Pete McKnight: Do you have great ideas to promote Association members to public or technology smarts to keep the Association's website and social scene up-to-date with trends? If you answered yes, then the Marketing & Technology Committee could use you.

_____ Membership Committee ~ Chairman: Merle Heckman: The Membership Committee is charged with developing new and innovative ways to recruit and retain members throughout the year, in addition to hosting bi-annual membership drives.

_____ Professional Enrichment ~ Chairman Jeremy Longshore: The PEC encompasses the planning and implementation of educational programs of interest to RRHBA members.

_____ SUBPAC (Southwest United Builders Political Action Committee) ~ Chairman: David Radford: 2017 Appointed positions. The Association's political action committee. There are eight trustee positions, which require Board approval.
